

WILSON ACCUSED AS BOMB THROWER

Secretary of I. W. W. Leader, and Haywood's Sister Held in Chicago Plot—May Have Been Attempt to Free Haywood.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Chicago, Sept. 6.—Officials here this morning asserted that in the arrest of Thomas J. ("Shorty") Wilson, secretary of "Big Bill" Haywood, convicted boss of the I. W. W., they hold the man who threw the fatal building bomb which caused a death toll of four.

Wilson was arrested almost simultaneously with Mrs. Minnie Wymann, sister of Haywood, with whom he boarded.

"We've got the man who threw the bomb—and the right one, too," said Assistant State's Attorney Michael F. Sullivan. Another official asserted that "Shorty" Wilson is the man.

A new theory concerning the scope and aim of the plot has arisen through the arrest of Mrs. Wymann. It is believed that the explosion was timed when it was to give "Big Bill" who was known to be in the building at the time, an opportunity to escape during the confusion. Haywood, however, who was under a United States deputy marshal's order to "stay where you are," and stayed.

It is believed that two persons placed the bomb which killed four persons.

MANGIN MENACES GERMAN LEFT WING

By Telegram to The Freeman. Paris, Sept. 6.—The advance of General Mangin's Franco-American army on the Aisne is already putting the left end of the Hindenburg line under strong pressure.

The British have smashed the right end.

All Paris is breathless, expecting the most important developments soon.

Large numbers of American wounded are now arriving at Paris hospitals. They say that some of the German machine gunners took fright and ran when attacked but that others stood up and gave battle.

There is high praise for the American engineers who constructed bridges over the Vesle while under heavy shell fire.

MEXICAN OIL TAX

Levy Burdensome to Allies Suspected Pending Appeal.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Washington, Sept. 6.—Enforcement of the Mexican oil lands tax decree has been virtually suspended for sixty days. It was learned here this afternoon that the Mexican supreme court has postponed until early in October, hearings on the various appeals from the decree which, it is contended, amount practically to confiscation, and in the meanwhile the provisions of the decree are not being enforced by the government.

Smith, a sailor, who said he had known the dead man for five years. Smith said Stearns was a second lieutenant and attached to a United States mine layer and that the parents of Stearns lived in Glen Falls, N. Y. He had registered as John Sayer.

HERTLING FEARS IT MAY BE TOO LATE

To Grant Political Reforms Which Would Appease Germans—His Motive Viewed With Distrust By Allies.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Paris, Sept. 6.—The declaration of the German imperial chancellor, George von Hertling, that the preservation of the crown and the dynasty are at stake on the question of German franchise reforms, has not impressed the French in well-informed circles.

The Kaiser's move is believed, here, to be twofold. First, it is thought that he is bent upon stiffening the morale of the German people in the face of the recent defeat. Secondly, it is believed that he is trying to prepare the way for a winter peace plan.

There have been many signs within the last few days, that both needs are pressing. The situation is reflected in the tone of the German communiques, the interview with the crown prince, and the editorials of the German press, all of which are under the control of the military chiefs.

Zurich, Sept. 6.—In his appeal to the constitution committee of the upper house, Count George F. von Hertling, the imperial German chancellor, did not mince words in predicting the "gravest disturbance" in Germany if the opposition further delays the franchise reforms promised by the government.

"If the opposition delays the reform longer," Hertling declared, "it will result in the gravest disturbance. By immediate action we may be able to avoid the extreme radicalization of the life politics. But I am not sure that the opposition has delayed things too long, and that it is not already too late."

BRITISH AIRMEN'S MONTH'S RECORD

By Telegram to The Freeman. London, Sept. 6.—Four hundred and sixty-five German aeroplanes have been destroyed by British airmen since August 8, two hundred have been shot down out of control, sixty-five observation balloons have been set on fire, and 81½ tons of bombs have been dropped, the war office announced today.

NEW JEWISH YEAR.

Two Days Spent Celebrating Rosh Hashonah.

This evening is the beginning of Rosh Hashonah, the principal holy day of the Jewish year and Jewish New Year's Day. While Saturday, September 7, is the new moon of the seventh month (Tishri) the religious importance of the month so emphasized this particular new moon observance that it gradually became adopted as New Year's Day. It is the beginning of the cycle known as the "ten days of repentance," ending with the Day of Atonement.

As usual, the observance begins at sundown this evening, and in the orthodox synagogues lasts until sundown Sunday, two days being observed instead of one.

Services Here.

Rosh Hashonah, the Jewish New Year, will be observed in tonight with services in the temples and synagogues. Divine services will be held tonight at Temple Emanuel at 7:30 and on Saturday at 10 o'clock. Rabbi Louis Brav, of Raleigh, N. C., who accepted a call from Temple Emanuel, will occupy the pulpit. The theme of his discourse tonight will be, "The Transient and the Permanent." On Saturday morning, "The Prayer For Life."

ONLY 3 WET TOWNS

Left in Greene County After Local Option Election.

There are now eleven "dry" towns in Greene county, Cossackie at the local option election Tuesday voting no license on three questions. The only towns in that county having license now are Athens, Cairo and Catskill. Because the hotel license question was defeated by only 7 votes, the hotel men of the town have demanded a recount in the four districts. This is taking place today. Druggists may still retain their license to sell liquor upon prescription, this point having been won by a small majority.

Slight Fire on Lucas Avenue.

Children playing games accidentally overturned a lamp last night about 10:30 o'clock and a tablecloth was set on fire in the rooms of John G. Kilmer, No. 55 Lucas avenue. A hold at Flatbush, N. Y. President Sills said that the military program planned for this fall would make intercollegiate football impossible.

Water Main Repaired.

A water main has been broken on Washington avenue for the past two days, between Pearl and Warren streets, the water gushing to the roadway.

TYLER TO PITCH FOR CUBS TODAY

Will Try And Avenge Yesterday's Trimming By Red Sox—Luck Was With Sox Thursday.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Chicago, Sept. 6.—George Tyler, who was one of the king-pins in George Stallings's famous drive that won a world's championship for the Boston Braves in 1914, is the man on whom Fred Mitchell and a host of Cub fans are pinning their faith in the second game of the series with Boston for the 1918 championship of the world.

The Cubs today are eager and determined to even matters with the Red Sox after yesterday's 1 to 0 defeat. And Tyler is the unqualified and only selection announced by Manager Mitchell for the pitching task.

Latest word from the North Side camp is that Tyler is physically fit and that his broad shoulders and good left arm are steered for the burden that this afternoon's game will place upon them. Tyler is confident that he will be able to duplicate the brilliant pitching stunts of his fellow southpaw, "Hippo" Vaughn, who held the Red Sox to five sparse hits, but he is hoping that the luck will break for him instead of against him as it did for Vaughn.

The probable line-up today:

Boston—Hooper, rf. Shean, 2b. Strunk, cf. Whitman, lf. McInnis, 1b. Scott, ss. Thomas, 3b. Agnew, c. Mays, p. Bush, p.

Chicago—Flack, rf. Hollecher, ss. Mann, lf. Paskert, cf. Merkle, 1b. Pick, 2b. Deal, 3b. Killefer, c. Tyler, p.

FISHING FOR PANTS THROUGH THE ROOF

Since Fire at Pants Factory Over 500 Pairs of Pants Stolen—Two Arrested on Charge of Receiving Stolen Goods.

A novel way of securing a pair of pants free has been discovered at the Lyons, Koffler Clothing Company, pants factory on Prince street. The factory, which is located on the second floor of the Lawton building, was recently gutted by fire. Since that time from 500 to 700 pairs of pants have been stolen from the gutted factory. There is a hole in the roof about eight inches in diameter and a long pole was lowered through this hole. A nail was in the end of the pole and the one who used the pole would jab it into a pile of pants and haul whatever he caught up through the roof.

Thursday afternoon Sergeant Phinney arrested John Simmons, 20 years old, of Van Dusen street, and John DuBois, 16 years old, of Prince street, on a warrant secured by David Bergman of the pants factory, charging the two young men with receiving stolen goods.

They were arraigned in police court before Judge Schirick later that day and the hearing was adjourned until Monday morning to enable them to secure a lawyer.

At Simmons's house Sergeant Phinney secured seven pairs of pants which were turned over to him by Simmons, and which were identified by Mr. Bergman as his goods.

It is understood that both Simmons and DuBois deny they stole the pants or knew they were stolen. They will have a chance to tell their side of the story Monday morning in police court.

From what was dropped at the city hall this morning it is likely that several prominent residents of the Third ward will be implicated before the case is finally sifted to the bottom.

In addition to stealing the pants through the hole in the roof with a pole with a nail in it, it is said that thieves also used the elevator shaft. Just who stole pants from the factory is not known at the present time, but the case is being investigated by the police. The thefts have been in progress ever since the fire.

Brunswick, Maine, Sept. 4.—There will be no intercollegiate football this fall, according to an announcement today by President Sills of Bowdoin college, who has just returned from a conference of college presidents held at Flatbush, N. Y. President Sills said that the military program planned for this fall would make intercollegiate football impossible.

STATEMENT OF "GAS" SITUATION

Fuel Administration Urges Individual Conservation of Motor Fuel to Make Drastic Measures Unnecessary.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 27, 1918. The Freeman, Kingston, N. Y.

Dear Sir:—Unless the wasteful methods in the handling and use of gasoline are at once corrected, it will undoubtedly be necessary for the government to control the distribution and use made of gasoline. Automobileists would then be made to conform to the more severe control and, therefore, it is to the automobilists that we must go with a campaign of education that will point out to all users of oil and gasoline that wasteful usage must be stopped.

We hope for the cooperation of your paper in giving support to the questions of oil and gasoline conservation. If you conduct an automobile section, anything you can publish in that department urging conservation of gasoline will be greatly appreciated by the United States Fuel Administration and will have a helpful effect in averting the necessity of more drastic control. There is no desire to put the country on a fuel ration but it is necessary that all users discontinue all wasteful uses of fuel oil, gasoline, kerosene and all other oil products.

Motorists should not run their engines when the car is not in motion. They should avoid overfilling tanks and see that no oil or gasoline is spilled or allowed to leak. Carburetors should be adjusted to operate on the thinnest mixture. All unnecessary driving should be discouraged.

If sufficient gasoline and oil cannot be saved from what is now wasted in the ways above suggested, then such mandatory control as will assure the quantities needed for the conduct of the war will be inevitable.

Very truly yours,
United States Fuel Administration,
Oil Division,
Bureau of Oil Conservation,
By C. C. Winingham,
Chief of Gasoline Section.

It soon will be presented in the senate.

The accident occurred near the Red House on the Saugerties road. It was impossible to ascertain further details.

If It Would Only Fall Here.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Paris, Sept. 6.—It is virtually certain that the Germans will be unable to stand on the Aisne, but will have to retreat beyond the Chemin-des-Dames, said the Pigeon today in a column of the "view of all France." The Bobo de Paris says that the fall of Hun is now a foregone conclusion.

BRITISH, FRENCH AND AMERICANS FORGE AHEAD

All Fighting Fronts Extended During Past 24 Hours—German High Command Alarmed as Gigantic Pincer Movement Develops Against Hindenburg Line.

This was the fourth anniversary of the opening of the battle of the Marne, the first decisive defeat inflicted upon the Germans in the west, and the day found the Allied armies—British, French and American—engaged in delivering another smashing defeat upon the Huns over a front more than 125 miles.

Following the big British victory in the north when the Wotan switch, supporting the upper end of the Hindenburg line was broken through, the French are now concentrating terrific pressure against the southern end of the line and are steadily smashing the German defensive works upon which it rests.

Americans have extended their gains on the Aisne river, widening their grip in the direction of Rheims. The Germans are faced with the possibility of another retreat in that zone and may be compelled to retreat behind the Chemin-des-Dames—a highway resting on the Aisne heights to the north of the river.

South of Peronne, in Picardy, the British have forced a crossing of the Somme river, capturing many villages. The Germans are hastily falling back in that district, pursued by the British.

The whole British, French and American fronts were advanced during the past twenty-four hours and many villages were occupied.

AMERICANS LEAVE RUSSIA SAFELY

SAVED FROM DEATH.

President Frees Soldier Sentenced To Be Shot.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Washington, Sept. 6.—President Wilson today again disapproved the death sentence meted out to a private soldier and ordered him freed and restored to duty.

The soldier is Private William A. Kerner, Company C, 306th Infantry, who was convicted by court martial of disobedience when he ignored the order of a first lieutenant to drill at Camp Upton last March. Kerner was sentenced to be "shot to death by musketry."

In disapproving the sentence, the president declared that the assistant judge advocate general of the court was illegally appointed and ordered that Private Kerner be immediately released and allowed to resume his status as a soldier.

What's the Matter With the Girls?

Today Kingston is suffering a serious shortage in message boy service of every sort. With one messenger boy during the day at one telephone office and none at the other, with stores and offices badly needing errand boys and hotels short of call boys, the problem is one to be investigated. Some of the places so short of help at present have been questioned through their head men or women as to the desirability of girl help in place of the boys. The answer has not been any credit to either the responsibility or now, to the patriotism of the girls.

Almost without exception the answer has been that the girls are careless, lack interest in their work, are slow and quite without responsibility. What's the matter with our girls?

The Boy Scouts Drum Corps made a fine showing in yesterday's parade given for the honor men who left for service. The Scout Drum Corps now numbers among its members twelve drummers, two bass drummers, twelve fifes, six buglers, 2 gymbal players and a drum major. With the more careful and persistent practice made possible now that vacation is over, the drum corps should very soon, judging by its present efficiency, be a decided addition to the military musical organizations of the city.

VICTORY MENUS.

These menus, planned to conserve time, labor and money, to save the foods that are scarce and use those of which there is an abundance, are Victory Menus in more senses than one. *Chocolate rolled oat cake. Dinner—Baked beans with onions. Nut bread. *Dressed lettuce. Vanilla junket.

*May be omitted and still leave a balanced meal.

Milk for the children to drink at each meal.

"Bean day once a week" is the new slogan of the patriotic housewife. If beans disagree with any member of the family, try removing the skins after they are parboiled. This can be done by dipping in cold water and rubbing them through the hands. Beans used with some milk in the same meal, such as the vanilla junket here, completely take the place of meat.

Chocolate Rolled Oats Cake.

1 1/2 cups ground rolled oats 1/2 cup rice flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder 1/2 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup butter or other fat, 2-3 cup corn syrup, 1-3 cup molasses, 2 eggs, 1-3 cup sour milk, 2 squares chocolate, melted, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Sift the rice flour, baking powder, soda and salt, and add the oat flour. Cream the fat, and add the syrup and molasses. Add the beaten eggs, the milk, and the dry ingredients. Then add the melted chocolate and vanilla. Bake the cake in two layers, and put them together with chocolate filling. Use a frosting, if desired, made of corn or maple syrup.

Baked Beans With Onions.

Prepare baked beans in the usual way. Before placing in the jar to bake, place a layer of sliced onions on the bottom of the dish, pour in one-half of the beans, and cover with another layer of onions. Add the rest of the beans and bake in the usual way. A fireless cooker may be used by beginning a few hours earlier.

Recipes for any of the dishes in these menus which cannot be found in cook books, may be had by writing to the Department of Home Economics, State College of Agriculture, Ithaca, N. Y.

FELL TWO MILES; REGAINED CONTROL

By Telegram to The Freeman.

With The American Army In France, Sept. 6.—Unconscious from a bullet wound in the head, Lieutenant John Van Heuvel of Mobile, Ala., dropped more than two miles in gliding flight in a runaway airplane with a dead observer in the seat behind him. By the barest luck Van Heuvel regained consciousness and made a safe landing.

The incident occurred on the morning of July 16 when Van Heuvel with Lieutenant F. K. Hirth of 140 West 21st street, Toledo, Ohio, were on a photographing mission over the enemy lines on the Toul front.

They were attacked by two Boche planes, one of the German machine guns rapidly firing. A bullet penetrated Hirth's brain, killing him instantly. Another wounded Van Heuvel.

The rapid rush through the air restored Van Heuvel to consciousness. When he came to he discovered the plane sliding rapidly downward. With a great effort the Mobile man righted it about 1,000 yards from the ground.

Van Heuvel landed a short distance within our lines, collapsing as the machine grounded. He is now recovering.

RECORD OUTPUT OF LIBERTY MOTORS

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, Sept. 6.—The country's output of Liberty motors—more than 800—during the past week broke all previous records, the house military affairs committee was informed by General March, chief of staff, today.

The committee at its weekly conference with General March at the war department, was also informed that the United States turned out more Liberty motors in this period than all of its Allies combined could produce of the same type of motor.

"Judging by what we were told, we can go to sleep and rest contentedly on the proposition that by Christmas our aircraft production will be more than keeping pace with our war demands," Representative Caldwell, New York, a Democratic member of the committee, said following the conference.

SENATOR ASSAILS DRAFT ROUND-UPS

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, Sept. 6.—Draft round-ups in American cities have been conducted without authority of law, Senator Chamberlain, chairman of the senate military affairs committee, declared in the senate this afternoon.

"They have gone so long uncorrected because men are afraid to assert their rights in times of war," Senator Chamberlain said. "If anything like this were attempted in peace times, many a man would have killed the meddlesome individual who attempted to subject him to such indignities."

ABOUT THE FOLKS.

Krom-Osterhoudt.

A very pretty wedding took place on Saturday, August 31, at 12 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Osterhoudt, at Accord, when their daughter, May Osterhoudt, was united in marriage to Wilson B. Krom. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. L. Heroy under an arch of ferns and chrysanthemums. The bride was attired in a beautiful white embroidered dress and her traveling dress was a navy blue broadcloth. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Rancus Smith, sister and brother-in-law of the groom. Mrs. Smith wearing a champagne color silk. Only the immediate families were present. Following the ceremony a bountiful dinner was served. The young people will spend their honeymoon in Canaan, Conn. They received some pretty presents and several checks. Their many friends wish them a long and prosperous life.

Heap Much Salute.

John Ratt, a full-blood Cherokee Indian of Cherokee county, Oklahoma, being drawn in the draft of selected men, was sent to Camp Travis, Texas, for training. After he had been in camp for several days, he was hailed before the adjutant for failing to salute an officer, and gave the following explanation for his default: "We live at Weiling. When we meet men there maybeso speak to him one time. No speak any more to same man all day. Down here me salute every time me pass it man."—Everybody's Magazine.

Come on You Big Dick!

Comiskey Park, Chicago, Sept. 6.—One great American pastime vied with another among the "bugs" waiting in line for the opening of the second game of the world's series today. The early morning hours of waiting were whittled away by more than a score of youths manipulating the spotted bones according to the rules of the game familiarly known as "craps." The police looked on with friendly eye and did not halt the gamblers.

R. R.'s Consider McAdoo's Terms.

New York, Sept. 6.—Acceptance of the terms of the government contract with the standard railroads of the country as approved by Director General McAdoo was urged upon the companies in a decision of the law and executive committees of the railway executives' advisory committee, in session here today.

American Artillery Active.

By Telegram to The Freeman. With the American Army on the Aisne-Vesle Front, Sept. 4 ($ a. m.)—Franco-American forces on this front celebrated the fourth anniversary of the battle of the Marne by smashing in German key positions on the southern end of the Hindenburg line with their artillery. The French have advanced through the lower part of Coucy forest, establishing themselves in their old positions on the Aisne.

KINGSTON, N. Y., SEPT. 6, 1918.

Railway Director McAdoo's order forbidding railway employees to engage actively in politics opens a wide field for surmise and speculation. The order is based on the fact that the railways being under government control, all employees are technically at least officials or employees of the government and therefore in the same class with post office officials and employees who have long been, more in theory than in fact, supposed to refrain from active participation in politics. If railway employees must keep out of politics for the reason assigned, why not telephone and telegraph employees who are also working under government direction? And just where is the vague line between government administration and government supervision to be drawn? Nearly if not quite all public utilities corporations are under government supervision, which amounts practically to government control and administration, and the number is likely to grow greater, at least during the period of the war. If working under government control is to debar from active work in the political field, who will be left to carry on campaigns and run for office, if Mr. McAdoo's order means what it says and other departments of government issue similar orders? The condition that seems to threaten us as startling as it is novel, a condition under which everybody who is capable of holding a good job in either a laboring or an administrative capacity is to be debarred not only from public office, but from even taking part, other than voting, in selecting the men to hold offices would be going so far in the opposite extreme to that feared by opponents of government ownership as to cause as great reason for alarm. What would happen if the Socialists had their way and the government controlled all business?

Mr. McAdoo is reported to be seeking the aid of the churches in boosting the Fourth Liberty Loan. This is commendable. In the last Liberty Loan the country was regaled by speeches of two well-known movie stars, who traveled together and spoke for liberty. Each one of them was reported to be involved in a suit for divorce in which each was named co-respondent of the other in the proceedings. Had they been raising funds for license instead of for liberty the public would have considered it more appropriate. It was not a very dignified proceeding. This is a holy war, not a chorus of Aristophanes, and no better agency could be elected to help raise the funds for carrying it on than the churches, which are shouting the battle cry of freedom. Nor is it likely that our pastor will mix Democratic politics with their exhortations, as was reported to have been done by some of the Democratic four-minute-men in preceding loans, and which we may expect to witness again from the stump in view of the fact that the loan campaign was set right in the middle of the Congressional campaign. The people should listen attentively to their pastors, and if any bawling of a political party gives preference to party politics and slight the plea to buy bonds, kick him off the stump, vote as your conscience dictates, and buy bonds without being wheedled.

"We are all good Yankees now," a Georgian is quoted, and Southern soldiers in France are reported to have cheerfully accepted a term to which they at first objected because of its local significance in this country. To the Southerner a "Yankee" means a Northerner and to the latter the only "Yankees" are New Englanders, but in Europe this term, originally a corruption of "English" in the mouths of our Indians, has long been applied to all Americans alike. So, for the time at least, it may be fittingly employed in reference to all our soldiers in France.

American wage earners are just now reaping a rich harvest. It remains for them to determine whether that will spend their earnings as they go or put a large portion away in the form of Liberty Bonds and War Savings Stamps so that in future years they may have an income in the form of interest—an income in addition to that received for daily toil.

BRAND NEW USE.

For Tin Lizzies Has Been Found in France.

Paris, Aug. 25 (By Mail).—When a Boche airplane drops bombs, the space beneath a camionette or little automobile is poor shelter for five persons, three men and two women, but it has served. There seems to be no limit to the usefulness of those little tin Lizzies. The story was reported in Paris today. The scene was a road toward Verdun, where the Boche aviators have taken to shooting up the civilian population and anyone else who appears on the highways.

Four Y. M. C. A. workers, L. J. Darter, of Montgomery, Ala., Bert M. Cook, of Anderson, Ind., Miss Edith Southern and Miss Mildred McCluney, both of St. Louis, in a camionette driven by a soldier, were nearing Dard-le-Duc—the town and not the desert, this time.

They had been out all day searching for supplies for their canteen at Eclaron and were returning when the alarm sounded, followed by the appearance of a Boche airplane right overhead. A shower of shrapnel fell about them and, with no rehearsal whatever, the quintette dived beneath the "Henry."

The Boche dropped a bomb which landed less than 200 feet from the camionette. A second bomb threw up rocks and dirt an equal distance to the other side. By that time the aviator was carried out of straining distance, so the Red Triangle workers emerged from their impersonations of automobilists looking at the bottom of a car and went on to their canteen. Reports from the Verdun sector are that this is a daily occurrence.

ULSTER HERO IN CIVIL WAR

Gave Brilliant Service, an Example
His Son is Hopeful of Emulating
It Called—Status of P. O. Employee.

There are nine of the post office employees in this city who have gone to war. Under the provisions of the amended draft law going into effect September 12 several more will be subject to induction in the service. Those who have gone were all civil service appointments except Schwab, the special delivery messenger. The others who went were three R. F. D. men, one substitute city carrier, two regular carriers, and two clerks. From this it is understood that service in the local post office is not a reason in itself for exemption. The appointees to fill positions on rural free delivery routes and in the city post office service left vacant by drafts and enlistments are only temporary appointments, though appointments made to fill these vacancies are drawn from the civil service list, with the exception of the R. F. D.'s in which only permanent appointees are civil service men.

The official bulletin from Washington admonishes postmasters to instruct appointees made to fill war vacancies as follows: "On return from war of an employee if no vacancy exists the last appointed clerk or carrier, as the case may be, must be reduced to the substitute roll. This goes on until everyone of the employees returning from war gets back his old place."

Robert J. Carpenter, assistant superintendent of mails in the central post office, if called to go will respond cheerfully hoping to emulate his father, Oliver P. Carpenter, who enlisted in the summer of 1861, Co. F, 44th Regiment, that went out from Ulster county, entering the war for the union as a private and mustered out in 1865 as a captain, breveted major for gallant service in leading a charge on Appomattox station the night before Lee's surrender. His record was brilliant and he was publicly honored by old Ulster after the war. In the Second N. Y. (Harris Light) Cavalry which he joined after a period of illness that had brought him home on retirement from the 44th, he rose to first lieutenant, then to command of a company. The exploit that gained him high honor was the charge of a cavalry squadron which he commanded under Sheridan then operating to head off Lee the Confederate commander, which hastened Lee's surrender the following day. The latter had drawn up his famished army impatiently waiting the arrival of a train of supplies on which he depended to continue his retreat in order to join Johnson and unite their armies. Sheridan's boys under temporary command of Carpenter that night captured his train wiping out Lee's last support.

Motto for Dead Authors.
We are told that once, when Patience Worth was spelling out the endless pages of the "Story Tale" she came to a sudden stop, then wrote, "This be nuff," and knocked off for the night. A blessed phrase, and, of a certainty, her finest inspiration. Would that all dead authors would adopt it as their motto; and with outlay boards, and table legs, and automatic pencils, write as their farewell message to the world those three short, comely words, "This be nuff."—Agnes Reppner, in Atlantic.

Fastest Flowing River.
The fastest flowing river in the world is the Sutlej, in India, which rises 12,000 feet above the sea, and falls 12,000 feet in 180 miles.

ELECTIONS BOARD CANVASS BALLOTS

At the office of the Ulster County Boards of Elections, a canvass of the votes cast at the primary election, Tuesday, is in progress. The work is in charge of Chairman Trumpbour and M. O. Auchmoody, clerk of the board. Ashley W. Cooper, M. R. Ross, Miss Isabella Howard and Mark Sampson assisting. It is said the canvass must be completed 120 hours after primary election or five days, but it is not likely anyone will be arrested if the work lapses over a few hours.

ULSTER GARDEN CLUB

Drive for Annual Memberships First Step in Reorganization.

At the meeting of the Ulster Garden Club, held this week at the home of Mrs. Hermon Kelley at St. Remy, the theme under consideration was that of the Woman's Land Army. During the meeting, which was a business session exceptionally interesting reports were given of the recent New York State Conference of the Land Army of America, held in Albany. The reports were given by Mrs. Francis Leggett, chairman of the Ulster County Unit of the state organization, and Mrs. John D. Schoonmaker, chairman of the Woman's Branch of the Home Defense Committee of Ulster county. The chief business of the state conference was shown to be that of reorganization, whereby the former plan of local units would be done away with and the state would take over the entire supervision of the work. After hearing the reports, the Ulster Garden Club immediately voted to inaugurate a drive in the county by the pledging of the first memberships in this drive and every club member present pledged her own membership. It was also voted to co-operate in the drive with Mrs. Hollister Sturgis of Stone Ridge, who will be the county chairman of this drive. The club members present were then given a valuable comprehensive and very interesting account of the working of the land army in northeastern Ohio, the speaker being the hostess, Mrs. Kelley. The one variance from the land army topic was an informal but very interesting talk given by Miss Sarah Horton, a member of the club, recently returned from actual work in our Y. W. C. A. in connection with our training camps. Miss Horton expects soon to go to France to engage in similar work.

ROAD BUILDING

MAINTENANCE IS A PROBLEM

Under Constant Flow of Heavy Traffic
Main Trunk Lines Have Been Badly Broken Up.

Following the extension of the use of motortrucks for overland travel in the endeavor to relieve the railroads of the burden of strenuous wartime traffic, under which they have been laboring, it is but natural that the question of highway maintenance should come up for attention at this time.

It is now conceded that much has been done through the use of motor-propelled vehicles over the through connected highways of the country for the purposes mentioned above. Literally thousands of heavy motortrucks are now upon the road, materially speeding up the delivery of wartime necessities. The Lincoln highway, particularly in the Eastern states, has proved its high value over and over again; other trunk highways have also been called upon to carry an exceptional burden of this freight traffic.

This movement has all been carried on with the absolute approval of the federal government, and more, through the activities of the highway transport committee of the council of national defense, a further extension of this use of our public highways is being urged.

Under this constant flow of traffic the Lincoln highway, and certain other roads in the East are rapidly breaking down, the road surface rapidly disintegrating under the pressure of the driving wheels of the massive trucks. Up to the time when truck trains were started over the roads, the Lincoln highway in its entirety across the state of Pennsylvania, was a veritable boulevard; its surface was, in the main, macadam; the road was the pride of the state of Pennsylvania; large sums were expended in its careful maintenance—expended by the state, and the highway well served its purpose in carrying local and tourist traffic in relatively light vehicles. Similar conditions applied along the Lincoln highway in New Jersey. The argument is advanced at this time that, despite the inclination of local authorities to do everything within their power in a patriotic endeavor to further wartime interests, it is scarcely fair to expect the county and state authorities to maintain such main traveled routes as the Lincoln highway, in their pre-war condition, under the heavy traffic of constantly moving government vehicles. Government aid is solicited to keep the roads at their best.

So persistent have become complaints to congress that the highways of the country have been badly damaged by motortruck traffic that some members, especially those serving on committees dealing with the nation's financial affairs, are making a thorough study to determine how the situation can best be met. As a result it is expected that congress will soon receive requests to make appropriations running into the millions. The house committee on ways and means has already given some consideration concerning aid to be given the states in road improvement. It is but reasonable to expect that the federal government will take such steps as are necessary for an equitable apportionment of the burden of expense of maintaining such important routes of travel as the Lincoln highway.

Good Roads Will Help.
Good roads will help win the war—don't neglect them.

Curtain Rod Work.
Rod work requiring the use of oil, var and asphaltic products is to be carried on at the request of the federal fuel administration.

Increase Convicts' Pay.
Kentucky will pay its convicts who work on the roads $1.75 a day instead of $1 as a result of experiments during 1916 and 1917.

Life of Rural Community.
The very life of the rural community depends upon good roads.

Ancient Thessalonika.
British soldiers who at Salonika have little time to spare for the place. "They say we're there," remarked a Welsh war-borne home on leave, "that it dropped out of God's pocket." Ten years ago it had a Christian church so important that St. Paul devoted to it two of his immortal epistles.

For some days past the New Fall Dresses have been coming to us, and now we announce a most attractive showing.

The collection includes some of the smartest and touches of the new thoughts, whether in the design of the waist, or the use of the buttons which are very popular, and such other features that make them at once different and unusual.

The serge dresses are mostly in navy blue, made of a superior fine French serge and show the usage of buttons in various ways. Quite a number also with braid trimming.

One of the satin models has the front of the skirt in satin dress shows the free use of chenille and buttons with a new panel back arrangement. Some have side-

Bruch Has a Job.

Louis Bruch, wife and six children, came down from Andes, Delaware county, Saturday and remained at the United States Hotel until yesterday when they went into a new home at South Rondout. Bruch in consequence of an item in The Freeman and on the strength of Postmaster DeWitt's investigation, obtained a job in the American Hand Grenade Loading Company's plant yesterday at Port Jervis.

With a term in Andes on his hands he came to Kingston several days ago and applied to the postmaster to help him get a job. He had come into New York from the Canadian northwest and was in hard circumstances. Bruch had taken up the term, investing all he had in it. He was a delighted man, when through The Freeman, he found a chance to sell it and get his equity out of the property, payments on which present conditions would not permit him to make.

Want to Build a Pyramid?
If the great pyramid of Cheops in Egypt were to be built today its total cost would be not less than $100,000,000, according to experts who have studied the structure. Cheops is 480 feet high and covers almost three acres. It is made of 2,000,000 cubic feet of stone and was used in building this great pyramid.

Old Enough.
The harp was known in England and Ireland as early as the seventh century, and is believed to have been in existence before the Christian era.

Seeking Scanty.

Girls are natural beauty lovers. The thought girls give to their dress and the pride they take in whatever is pretty and becoming, proves that. But the girl who loves beauty must be careful not to put a higher estimate on the beauty of bright eyes than on that of a sweet soul. Do not value the crown of silk above the charm of kindly speech. In seeking beauty, do not lose sight of the beauty which is the highest of all.

How He Did It.
"The Man Who Conquered Failure."
We know him; when he last succeeded he found an old corner store and dignified it in shoe polish, and it worked all right.

Control Your Conduct.

The worst kind of unhappiness, as well as the greatest amount of it, comes from our conduct to each other. If our conduct, therefore, were under the control of kindness, it would be nearly the opposite of what it is, and so the state of the world would be almost reversed. We are for the most part unhappy because the world is an unkind world. But the world is only unkind for the lack of kindness in the individuals who compose it.—Frederick William Faber.

Fifty-Fifty.
Not Goodwin is blamed for the following: John's wife never knows where he is after nine in the evening, but neither does he.

AFTERMATH OF SEND OFF PARADE

The captain in charge of the District 2 contingent that entrained Thursday afternoon for Camp Jackson, S. C., selected was George E. Coons of Saugerties, the lieutenant being Frank Short, Robert Weber, also of Saugerties and Warren C. Harp of New Paltz.

The Red Cross nurses as usual came in for a applause as they paraded down Broadway in the leave-taking parade for the honor men Thursday afternoon. Letter carriers and post office clerks, the high school boys and girls and the business men and citizens were out in large numbers, which was favorably commented upon.

Camp Meetings Begin at Accord.

An event most unusual for these days and very striking and heart-gripping as well, will be the Mill Hook camp meetings which open this evening at 8 o'clock in the famous Accord grove. The evangelist who has been secured to have charge of these meetings, John McKay, of New York city, is a man of strong and pleasing personality, who has had most varied and thrilling life-experiences. A Wall Street man, making money "hand over fist" living in daily touch with the kings of finance in the metropolis, then caught in the whirlpool and saved by a miracle, now he is giving all the powers of a redeemed personality to the task of winning men's heart-allegiance to God. The meetings will continue for two weeks, beginning each evening at 8 o'clock. There will be a choir of singers from the neighboring churches, and instrumental music besides. On Sundays there will be three services, at 10:30 a. m., 2:30 and 8 p. m. The Town Sunday School Association will have charge of the meetings. All are welcome every evening and all day Sunday, when people are urged to come to the grove for the day, bringing lunches with them. In case of cold nights or rain, the meetings will be held in the near-by Rochester Church on the state road.

Corn For Winter.

Just as roasting ears cooked for the table taste better the fresher they are, so corn that is to be preserved in any way should be freshly gathered if possible. The corn should be at just the right stage of maturity for table use, says the state college of agriculture. If it is old and tough, canning, drying, or salting will not improve its quality. Corn is one of the most difficult vegetables to can successfully. It is desirable to use a steam pressure canner, and to cook the corn for one hour under ten pounds of pressure. Even though pressure canners are somewhat expensive to buy, they should be considered by anyone who has a large supply of vegetables from his own garden which he wishes to can.

Optimistic Thought.

Ancestral Brains.

Some folks live on the glory of their ancestors. They tell of the great things they did and the greater things they think they did. Then when they get the ear of some one especially sympathetic and credulous, there is an eruption of boast of greatness that might have been. These poor creatures live in the past. It's no wonder they do so little in the present.

To Mend Broken China.

Tie the broken parts of china together with stout string, being sure that the edges meet evenly; then completely submerge the dish in a pan of skim milk and place on back of stove to gently simmer all day. Do not remove from the milk until thoroughly cold and even then don't cut the string for 24 hours. Hot water will not cause the cups to come apart again.

Why the "Von."

"Von" before a name in German denotes a privilege title, either inherited or bestowed by a monarch upon his subject for meritorious services. While formally this prefix was found in military or feudal families only, many commoners, captains of industry, scientists, financiers and artists were so honored by their monarchs. The title is either hereditary or ceases with the death of the distinguished person.

CHILD WELFARE STATIONS.

Scales Will Be Brought To Child If Necessary.

Have we a case like this in Kingston, if so, the child welfare ladies will do as Worcester did. When they were taking the baby census in Worcester, Massachusetts, one woman sent word to the school in which there was a station for weighing and measuring the babies. This message was that she had eight children under five years of age, and that she could not possibly bring them to the station as it would be a day's task to get them ready. Those in charge cheerfully took the scales over to the house and found one boy, five years old, two pairs of twins and a set of triplets, all in excellent condition. Surely the president would be interested in this record.

HAPPENINGS IN POLICE COURT

Mrs. Anna Schermerhorn, 44 years old, of Cedar street, was fined $10 and sentenced to ten days in the county jail by Judge Schirick when she was arraigned before him this morning and entered a plea of guilty to public intoxication.

Monday Noah Burger of 23 Van Buren street, gave his umbrella to Thomas Gorman, 77 years old, an umbrella mender, to place a new cover on it. Several days passed and Mr. Burger became worried and finally secured a warrant for his arrest. Gorman was apprehended in Saugerties. This morning in police court Mr. Burger stated that owing to Mr. Gorman's advanced age he had no wish to press the charge as long as he had recovered the umbrella.

Judge Schirick advised Gorman that hereafter it would be safer for him to skip Kingston on his umbrella mending trips.

HIGH WOODS FAIR.

Generous Support Given and Many Pleasing Features.

High Woods, Sept. 6.—Our Labor Day fair was as well attended as in former years, the day was perfect and all roads seemed to lead to High Woods after 12 m., until a large crowd was gathered before the usual parade came into view. Mt. Marion band headed the parade. Uncle Sam and Miss Liberty on horses came next, showing us they were inseparable as always, several floats followed. Among them was "Jr. O U A M, with a schoolhouse upon it," "Our Grocery Store," "Willing Workers," were there although many of them were working willingly elsewhere just then "Youth and Old Age," "Farmer and Wife," with their produce was very appropriate bringing to our minds the words of the poet.
 "But fall to each, what ever fall, The farmer he must feed them all."
 Our own Empire State flower, American Beauty rose trimmed another float, on which a sailor held a beautiful wreath of the same roses. Red Cross members walked as also did a band of little girls carrying a large flag, into which appreciative bystanders tossed silver. America's first natives had a float, showing they still are holding a place in their own country, as they have and should always although white men have pushed them aside far too often since Columbus came to America's shores so many years ago, and extended a friendly hand to the Indian.
 Last and some thought best of all came a "Happy Family." Mother ahead while the children were kept together by holding fast to a rope fastened to her, which we thought a good plan as some might have gotten astray, yet with father coming behind with his watchful eyes to "holler" at them should they even try to do so, we think the "uns" had no chance to stray.
 A flag drill by twelve ladies was given, while the band played patriotic music, at close of drill our national hymn, "America," was sung. The drill was repeated at night.
 At fancy work booth our patrons had to puzzle their minds to decide what to buy. The parcel post department did not have parcels enough to supply the demand although our mail carrier has been very busy of late filling our boxes with parcels sent by kind friends to whom we extend thanks, if any of them read this.
 The ice cream, candy and other booths all were busy while in the hall a beautiful supper was served to all who came to partake.
 When the money boxes were counted and added we found the total receipts were over five hundred dollars, which showed the people had as always been generous towards us. We thank them all for helping fill our church treasury, whose doors we always hope to keep open, although attendance grows less each year through death and removal. — midnight lights were turned on and Labor Day was ended in our place. May many who were here in 1918 be here again in 1919 is the sincere wish of the writer, yet all who read this know many changes must come before that time, but we are willing to trust all to God who "Worketh out all things well to those who love Him."

STONE RIDGE.

Stone Ridge, Sept. 6.—President Wilson has requested that every child in the United States below school age be weighed and in compliance with this request the Home Defense Committee of Marbletown will be at the Orange Hall, Stone Ridge, on Tuesday and Wednesday, September 10 and 11, between the hours of 9-12 a. m. and 2-5 p. m. to examine and weigh all children under school age and would ask that the mothers have their children there some time during that time. Come prepared to state date of birth.

Don't forget the Circle No. 4 of the C. E. Society expect to have Miss Mauserstock and Mrs. Roy Wood of Kingston give an entertainment some time in September, the date to be given later. Mrs. Wood and Miss Mauserstock have given entertainments in a number of other places, and we know that there is a treat in store for everyone who will be able to bear them now.
 There will be no services in the Reformed Church on Sunday, September 8.

Hall Led Draft Contingent.

Red Cross Benefit at St. Remy.

The Red Cross entertainment given in St. Remy church last Friday evening was a great success and over $200 was realized for local auxiliaries. The stage was prettily decorated with bunting on each side, while in center was a large flag with Red Cross shield hanging over it. The services of the Edenville people were much appreciated and added in many ways to the success of the entertainment. The marching and singing of "Over There" and "Tante Doodle" by the little soldier Myron York, four years old, clad in khaki, could not be excelled and was greatly applauded. The singing and acting of Liberty Bell by little May York in costume was heartily enjoyed. The Red Cross poem dramatized and read by Miss M. F. Page with the singing and acting by the Edenville helpers was very touchingly rendered. Lemonade and cake was served at the close and the Gypsy tent was visited by many who were anxious to know their future. The members of the auxiliary thank each and everyone who so kindly assisted them to continue this work so much needed at the present time.

UNDERNEATH THE CITY HALL DOME

"When do we turn back the hands of the clock, the last of this month?" asked the Casual Visitor at the city hall this morning.

"You are wrong," replied the City Hall Oracle. "Sunday, October 27, is the date fixed by the government."

"Do you know," remarked the Casual Visitor, "I for one don't see much use in changing the time and am in favor of leaving the clock alone and reading as it reads now."

"Well," explained the City Hall Oracle, "the idea of turning the clock one hour ahead was to save daylight, and now that the evenings are growing shorter it was figured that nothing would be saved of daylight by going back to the old time the last Sunday in October."

"I get you," replied the Casual Visitor.

"Alderman Preston is a merry young soul; yes, a merry young soul is he. He believes a six cent fare is the right kind of fare, for the trolley to soak you and soak me," warbled the City Hall Poet.

"Lots of folks carried a varied assortment of scents about with them, but soon they will need the copper kind when the trolley road gets in it," and Mrs. J. Post.

Increase," mused the City Hall Oracle.

The laws and rules committee of the common council held a meeting Thursday evening at the city hall and it is understood they considered the petition submitted by the gas company asking for permission to go before the public service commission asking for an increase in rates. What action was taken by the committee, of course is not known, but the impression is that they will report the petition back to the common council to act on it as a committee of the whole and give the public a chance to be heard if they so desire.

There are six cases of diphtheria in the city at the present time. All of the cases are down town. So far there has been one death from the disease.

Canning Tomatoes.

Many housekeepers prefer the open-kettle method to the cold-pack for canning tomatoes, even though they may use the cold-pack method for practically all other vegetables.

Although the tomatoes are not likely to hold their shape so well as by the cold-pack method, they are thought by some to have a better flavor. In the open-kettle method select tomatoes that are ripe, but not overripe, and free from blemishes.

Do not attempt to handle too many at one time. Carry the canning process through quickly. Seal the tomatoes for from one-half to two minutes, dip them into cold water, and remove them quickly.

With a sharp knife remove the stem, core, and the skin. Place one layer of the tomatoes in an enamel kettle, and for every quart add one teaspoonful of salt and from one to three teaspoonfuls of sugar. Add no water. Bring the mass to the boiling point, and boil for from six to ten minutes. Large tomatoes should be turned during the cooking. With a sterilized spoon, ladle them into jars that have been sterilized by being boiled for twenty minutes; fill the jars to overflowing.

Adjust the rubbers that have been placed in boiling water for five minutes, and the covers that have been sterilized with the jars.

Seal the jars and invert them to cool.

TOWN OF ULSTER.

ber from this place spent Labor Day
